Tyler's Tune

It seems like every time we turn around, there's something else on the calendar, like a mission trip, a banquet, a business meeting, a family commitment, or a project deadline. For many of us, it feels like we live at a pace that is constantly just beyond what's comfortable. Yet, in all of this busyness, God invites us into something countercultural: rest.

This week, as Pastor Cliff continues to teach on Sabbath and rest, I'm reminded that worship is one of the primary ways we "enter His rest" (Hebrews 4:9-10). When we gather on Sunday mornings and lift our voices together, we practice something restorative. We are laying aside our striving, our worries, and our overloaded schedules, and we're choosing instead to re-center on Christ.

Our music ministry isn't just about filling the room with sound; it's about creating space for our church family to breathe spiritually. Whether it's the quiet reverence of the Lord's Supper, the celebration of baptism, or the joyful anticipation of Easter, worship helps us slow down and listen for God's voice.

So, as you walk into church this Sunday—whether your week has been full of travel, caregiving, school events, or late nights—my prayer is that you will find rest as we worship together. Let music be your invitation to pause, reflect, and be renewed.

"Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." - Matthew 11:28
