Minute With Matt

Hello Church Family

If you do not see me for a few weeks, it is because I will be on a sabbatical. After seven years, the church was gracious enough to give me one. A sabbatical is an opportunity for pastors to get away, refresh, and seek out God. The purpose of one is for rejuvenation, spiritual renewal, and personal growth. I am very thankful and appreciative of this very generous opportunity. During the break I will be spending time with my family and seeking out God for wisdom and discernment. But do not worry, our Youth and Missions are in the capable hands of Hayden Benard and our staff. I am thankful to have a staff that is so cohesive, and thankful for Hayden being able to lead in missions, youth, and Wednesday nights while I am gone.

Church, thank you for your support and love. I appreciate each of you and will miss you over the next month. While I look forward to my return, I also look forward to some extra time for rest and family.

Matt Butler
Minister of Youth and Missions
