Spring is Here!

Last week, we might have grumbled about losing an hour of sleep, but this week, not many are complaining about longer days of sunlight and warmer weather! I love this season of renewal and fresh beginnings.

Spring also tends to be a busy time for many of us. For me, March is full of travel! Two weeks ago, I was in Honduras leading a mission training. This week, Sarah and I are taking some much-needed time for just the two of us. With our packed schedules—and Reggie's basketball games—we weren't able to celebrate our 20th anniversary earlier this year. So, Spring Break provided the perfect opportunity for a getaway! Then, at the end of the month, I'll be leading a team on our annual mission trip to India.

I hate being away from you all. Sundays with my church family are such a privilege. But I'm excited that one of my mentors and dearest friends, Dr. Danny Sinquefield, will be preaching this Sunday and again while I'm in India. Danny, who retired from Faith Baptist in Bartlett, now serves with the Tennessee Baptist Mission Board as the Harvest Field leader for West Tennessee, supporting over 400 churches in our region. He is one of my closest friends and someone I turn to often for wisdom and encouragement. Please make him feel at home!

I love you all and can't wait to be back with you next week.

Blessings,
Cliff
